THE VILLAGE OF PINGREE GROVE BREAKS GROUND FOR ITS NEW WATER AND WASTEWATER TREATMENT PLANTS

PINGREE GROVE, IL – November 30, 2004 – Although the weather was cold and rainy it didn't dampen the spirits of the residents of Pingree Grove or the senior vice president of Cambridge Homes, Inc., Jerry Conrad, during the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Pingree Grove Water Treatment Plant and Wastewater Treatment Plant. The new plants are designed by Lintech Engineering LLC and being constructed by Joseph J. Henderson & Son, Inc. Both plants are scheduled to be substantially complete by the summer of 2005.

After the culmination of the groundbreaking ceremony the guests retreated to a large, heated white tent about half mile from the site for a delicious lunch and music by the Brass Consortium quintet.

About 75 people joined in the festivities including Village President Verne Wester, Village Trustees Jon Peschke, Richard Stramaglia, Wendell Follman, Steve Wiedmeyer, Mac Sutton, and Kraig Kilpatrick, Village Clerk Carol Peschke, Village Treasurer Denise Wiedmeyer and Village Manager Jim Bassett. Also present were Illinois State Representative Timothy Schmitz, Mike Henderson, Dave Henderson and Steve Dalbec of Joseph J. Henderson & Son, Inc., Jeremy Lin of Lintech Engineering LLC, representatives of various subcontracting firms/suppliers and many residents from the Village of Pingree Grove.
